

JRA Supplementary Series no. 42

RECENT RESEARCH IN LATE-ANTIQUUE URBANISM

edited by Luke Lavan

Preface and Acknowledgements

Late-antique urbanism: a bibliographic essay

L. Lavan

1. Political life

Civic finances from Constantine to Julian: the re-shaping of urban political life

A. Lewin

2. Urban topography

The praetoria of civil governors in late antiquity

L. Lavan

A new urban élite? Church builders and church building in late-antique Epirus

W. Bowden

'Decline' in the ports of Palestine in late antiquity

S. A. Kingsley

Fortifications and urbanism in late antiquity: Thessaloniki and other eastern cities

J. Crow

War and order: urban remodelling and defensive strategy in Late Roman Italy

N. J. Christie

City walls and urban area in late-antique Macedonia: the case of Philippi

S. Provost

3. Regional studies

Recent research on the late-antique city in Asia Minor: the second half of the 6th-c. revisited

M. Whittow

L'île d'Antioche à la fin de l'antiquité: histoire et problème de topographie urbaine

G. Poccardi

Evergetism and urbanism in Palmyra

J.-B. Yon

Demetrias and Thebes: the fortunes and misfortunes of two Thessalian port cities

O. Karagiorgou

4. City and hinterland

Town and territorium in Late Roman Anatolia (late 5th to early 7th c.)

F. R. Trombley

5. Retrospective on late antiquity

Was Gibbon politically incorrect? The use and abuse of concepts of 'decline' in later Roman history

J. H. W. G. Liebeschuetz

Responses to J. H. W. G. Liebeschuetz

A. Cameron,

B. Ward-Perkins,

M. Whittow ,

L. Lavan.

List price: $89.50 Discounted price to private individuals $71.60 plus postage.

Cloth. ISBN: 1-887829-42-3. CURRENTLY OUT OF PRINT.