

THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF SANCTUARIES AND RITUAL IN ETRURIA

edited by

N. T. de Grummond and I. Edlund-Berry

with contributions by

G. Bagnasco Gianni, S. A. Collins-Elliott, N. T. de Grummond, I. Edlund-Berry,
H. Nagy, L. C. Pieraccini, K. Rask, S. Stopponi, & P. G. Warden

PORTSMOUTH, RHODE ISLAND
2011

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	6
1. Introduction Ingrid Edlund-Berry	7
2. Campo della Fiera at Orvieto: new discoveries Simonetta Stopponi	16
3. Tarquinia: excavations by the University of Milano at the Ara della Regina sanctuary Giovanna Bagnasco Gianni	45
4. The temple is a living thing: fragmentation, enchainment and reversal of ritual at the acropolis sanctuary of Poggio Colla P. Gregory Warden	55
5. Ritual practices at the sanctuary of the Etruscan artisans at Cetamura del Chianti Nancy T. de Grummond	68
6. New approaches to the archaeology of Etruscan cult images Katherine Rask	89
7. Etruscan votive terracottas and their archaeological contexts: preliminary comments on Veii and Cerveteri Helen Nagy	113
8. The wonders of wine in Etruria Lisa C. Pieraccini	127
9. Conclusion Nancy T. de Grummond	139
A bibliography of sanctuaries and ritual in Etruria Stephen A. Collins-Elliott and I. Edlund-Berry	143
Notes on the contributors	166